

MEDIA PRODUCTION

radio/television prod. & mgt.

Journalism and Mass Communications curriculum guides augment your 2018-2019 Undergraduate Catalog. The guides:

- offer a semester-by-semester plan,
- outline general education, school and program requirements,
- include reminders about internships and graduation audits, and
- summarize graduation requirements.

A suggested semester-by-semester plan: The following is a model for progress through the radio/television production and management emphasis of the media production major. It may be beneficial to take courses in different time frames, but try to follow the sequence of JMC offerings. Select courses to include critical thinking, multicultural, international and writing intensive requirements.

Securing an internship

All SOJMC majors must complete at least 3 credit hours of internship. Students earn 1 credit hour for each 100 hours of approved professional practice. Ideally, internships should be completed during the summer between the junior and senior years. To ensure your work is properly credited, you must work through the internship director.

- Submit a complete internship application.
- Secure approval of the employment or other work.
- Get permission to enroll in JMC 490, 491 or 470.
- Maintain weekly contact, attend scheduled meetings and submit a final report and a portfolio.
