

SPORTS BROADCAST

W. Page Pitt School of Journalism and Mass Communications curriculum guides augment your 2016-2017 Undergraduate Catalog. Use them to help plan each semester of your program. The guides:

- offer a semester-by-semester plan for your study,
- outline general education, school and program requirements,
- include reminders about internships and graduation audits, and
- summarize your graduation requirements.

A suggested semester-by-semester plan

The following plan is a suggested model for progress through the sports journalism program. It may be beneficial to take courses in different time frames, but watch particularly the sequence of JMC requirements. Plan course selections so that critical thinking, multicultural, international and writing intensive requirements are included.

Core II Physical or Natural Science (4 hours)

Core II Social Sciences (3 hours)

Core II Humanities (3 hours)

Securing an internship

All SOJMC majors must complete at least 3 credit hours of internship. Students earn 1 credit hour for each 100 hours of approved professional practice. Ideally, internships should be completed during the summer between the junior and senior years. To ensure your work is properly credited, you must work through the internship director.

- Submit a complete internship application.
- Secure approval of the employment or other work.
- Get permission to enroll in JMC 490, 491 or 470.
- Maintain weekly contact, attend scheduled meetings and submit a final report and a portfolio.
