

ASSIGNMENT OF APPLIED MUSIC LEVEL

This assignment is made following the completion of the _____ semester.

Student: _____ Instrument: _____

___ Major ___ Minor ___ Elective ___ BA ___ BFA ___ MA

This is the _____ semester of applied study on this instrument.

___ Primary ___ Secondary Instrument Pre-jury level ___ Post-jury level ___

(Applied Teacher's Signature)

This assignment is made following the completion of the jury performance, and represents the decision of the faculty committee hearing the jury. The assignment of the Applied Music Level should be compared to the table given on page 18 of the Student Handbook (Edition 6, effective Fall 2008). Each level corresponds to a particular year of study. Typically, one academic year is required to advance one level. Failure to achieve the level that matches a year of study (freshman, sophomore, etc.) in a timely fashion may jeopardize the completion of your degree within the standard four-year plan. In more serious cases, it may jeopardize your continuation in the major or minor programs.

ASSIGNMENT OF APPLIED MUSIC LEVEL

This assignment is made following the completion of the _____ semester.

Student: _____ Instrument: _____

___ Major ___ Minor ___ Elective ___ BA ___ BFA ___ MA

This is the _____ semester of applied study on this instrument.

___ Primary ___ Secondary Instrument Pre-jury level ___ Post-jury level ___

(Applied Teacher's Signature)

This assignment is made following the completion of the jury performance, and represents the decision of the faculty committee hearing the jury. The assignment of the Applied Music Level should be compared to the table given on page 18 of the Student Handbook (Edition 6, effective Fall 2008). Each level corresponds to a particular year of study. Typically, one academic year is required to advance one level. Failure to achieve the level that matches a year of study (freshman, sophomore, etc.) in a timely fashion may jeopardize the completion of your degree within the standard four-year plan. In more serious cases, it may jeopardize your continuation in the major or minor programs.