

Learning Outcome #3: The student will demonstrate an awareness of the value and relationship of music in the global society, both in becoming contributing citizens and in recognizing opportunities for making music a lifelong career or avocation.

Degree Program (Check one) General Commercial Music Music History Pedagogy Vocal Jazz

Please check one of the following assessment points:

Midpoint Exit

Trait	Introductory	Milestone	Capstone	Advanced
Awareness of Personal Skills	Identifies and defines musical and non-musical skills	Recognizes and describes their own level of these personal skills	Develops strategies for improvement of personal skills	Synthesizes advanced personal skills in professional settings
Community Engagement	Defines and describes community engagement activities related to the music field	Defines the roles of community engagement for the professional musician	Develops strategies for pursuing community music projects	Synthesizes knowledge and resources in the pursuit of community music
Arts Advocacy	Defines arts advocacy	Recognizes the role of arts advocacy for the professional musician	Develops strategies for pursuing advocacy campaigns in the arts	Synthesizes knowledge and resources in the pursuit of arts advocacy projects
Recognition of Career Opportunities	Identifies and defines traditional and non-traditional music career opportunities	Defines personal success as it relates to career opportunities and other professional pursuits	Develops strategies for recognizing and preparing for professional pursuits	Synthesizes knowledge, skills, and resources in the pursuit of a music career

Please return to Vicki Stroehrer after the assessment period ends.