

CONFLICT OF INTEREST
INSTITUTIONAL REVIEW BOARD MEMBERS' CHECKLIST

Examples of Non-Reportable Activities	Examples of Reportable Activities
1. Receiving Income from seminars, lectures, or teaching engagements sponsored by public or nonprofit entities.	1. If an IRB member or his/her immediate family is an investigator or sub-investigator on the protocol.
2. Receiving Income from service on advisory committees or review panels for public or nonprofit entities.	2. When an IRB member or his/her immediate family has a direct or indirect financial interest in the sponsorship of any research project which the IRB is reviewing.
	3. When an IRB member or his/her immediate family have a direct or indirect financial interest in providing any product being investigated through any research project which the IRB is reviewing.
	4. When an IRB member or his/her immediate family have a direct or indirect financial interest in other entities whose financial interests would reasonably appear to be affected by the outcome of any research which the IRB is reviewing.
	5. Any ownership interest in a publicly traded company involved in the sponsorship of research being reviewed by the IRB that is held by the IRB member or his/her immediate family (excluding any interest arising solely by reason of investment in a business by a mutual, pension, or other institutional investment fund over which the IRB member or his/her immediate family does not exercise control).
	6. Any interest in a non-publicly traded company that is held by the IRB member or his/her immediate family being reviewed.
	7. A position held by the IRB member or his/her immediate family as employee, director, officer, partner or any position of management being reviewed.
	8. Any income (e.g. consulting, salary to the IRB member or his/her immediate family) received or promised being reviewed.
	9. Any loan from a study sponsor to the IRB member or his/her immediate family
	10. Any gift from a study sponsor to the IRB member or his/her immediate family.