Technical Questions and Answers

ADDENDUM 02 ATTACHMENT A

- Q1. Please provide an updated category breakdown of textbook sales information from the past few years, including new, used, rental, digital, and inclusive access.
- A1. Please see Addendum No 01.
- Q2. Please provide an updated category breakdown of retail sales information from the past few years, including, but not limited to, trade books, clothing, computers/technology, convenience, gifts, etc. If possible, we would also request a sales breakdown by location (main store, baseball stadium, football stadium).
- A2. Please see Addendum No 01 and Attachment C - Remote Athletic Sales Report.
- Q3. What percentage of overall sales in the current Marshall University Bookstore came from financial aid?
- A3. Please see Attachment D - Financial Aid Breakdown.
- Q4. Are there any sales reflected in the historical sales numbers that were a result of a one-time grant or other funding that will not occur in the future?
- A4. No, one-time grants are not received. However, payments are received from Veteran Readiness Employment (VRE), formerly Voc Rehab, each semester for the Veterans Affairs students utilizing their benefits. These payments cover books and supplies as part of their educational benefits. While this funding is specific to individual students under contractual arrangements and not considered a grant, it could loosely be categorized as “other funding”.
- Q5. What percentage of the courses at Marshall utilize free OER content?
- A5. Marshall University estimates that approximately 8–10% of all course sections use free Open Educational Resources (OER). This estimate is based on Banner-verified OER adoptions from Fall 2018 through Fall 2025, representing more than 1,296 course sections where faculty replaced commercial textbooks with free OER materials. During this period, more than 13,500 students have enrolled in courses using OER. Marshall continues to expand OER adoption through faculty development workshops, stipends for OER reviewers, and participation in statewide Open Learning WV initiatives.

- Q6. Does Marshall have any direct agreements in place with publishers or other third-party course material providers?
- A6. Yes.
- Q7. What is the current process for Marshall students to utilize their financial aid funds through the current Marshall University Bookstore?
- A7. Currently, students typically use the refund they receive from financial aid to purchase their course materials.
- Q8. Does Marshall utilize a Campus Card that can be used to purchase materials in the bookstore? If so, what company is used to manage it?
- A8. The University's Campus Card is not linked to a bank account or student financial accounts. It is managed through Transact System Enterprise (formerly Blackboard).
- Q9. Is Marshall open to self-operating a spirit store (apparel, merchandise, sundry items, etc.) with an Online Bookstore vendor providing all student-purchased materials shipped directly to the campus bookstore for student pickup?
- A9. The Department of Athletics would be interested in self-operating the Spirit Store and other athletic venues. However, it may be challenging for Athletics to manage the main store from the apparel side. Lastly, this approach would require buy-in from both Athletics and the University.
- Q10. Does Marshall own the current bookstore fixtures?
- A10. No.
- Q11. What is Marshall's Student Information System?
- A11. Ellucian Banner.
- Q12. What is Marshall's Learning Management System?
- A12. Transact System Enterprise.
- Q13. Does Marshall have any Inclusive Access course material adoptions? If so, how many courses have inclusive access adoptions.
- A13. The University conducted a pilot program during academic terms, Spring 2023, Summer 2023, Fall 2023 and Spring 2024. The program averaged three (3) to 11 sections per term. Total amount University invested was $66,752 in pilot.
- Q14. Would Marshall be interested in implementing an Equitable Access solution, an in-tuition solution where all course materials are automatically delivered to all students with the costs included as part of the cost of attendance?

- A14. Yes, however, this would be contingent upon approval from University Senior Leadership and the Marshall University Board of Governors.
- Q15. Please provide Bookstore Sales broken out by merchandise category (New Text, Used Text, Digital, Apparel, Supplies, etc...) for the three (3) most recent complete years.
- A15. Please see Addendum No 01.
- Q16. How many students participate annually in the Herd Academy dual credit program?
How are course materials currently sourced and distributed for Herd Academy courses?
- A16. Approximately 2,000.
- Course materials for Herd Academy courses are sourced and distributed in various ways. Whenever possible, they utilize Open Educational Resources (OER). Most of the time, when a student needs materials, it's because they are enrolled in an online or on-campus course. Depending on the school, students may purchase their own materials, or in some cases, the university provides them.
- Q17. What challenges exist in serving students who are not regularly on your Huntington campus?
- A17. Students who are not regularly on the Huntington campus typically obtain their course materials online, and faculty report no significant issues with students accessing required texts. One outstanding concern involves clarifying how the bookstore will support fully funded students at satellite locations such as Mid-Ohio Valley Center, South Charleston campus and Bill Noe Flight School and Aviation Maintenance Technology locations.
- Q18. Are you able to provide floor plan(s) for the existing store location?
- A18. See Attachment E - Bookstore Floor Plans.
- Q19. Is there a current Inclusive Access Program in place where course materials are included in the cost of the course? If yes, can you please provide:
- # of courses participating
 - Annual Sales for participating courses
- A19. The University conducted a pilot program during academic terms, Spring 2023, Summer 2023, Fall 2023 and Spring 2024. The program averaged three to 11 sections per term. Total amount University invested was $66,752 in pilot.
- Q20. Can you provide a current booklist for the 2 most recent semesters
- A20. See Attachment F - Book Lists for Fall 2025 and Spring 2026
- Q21. What are the top 3 strategic priorities driving this RFP?
- A21. In addition to meeting state spend threshold compliance, below are the top 3 strategic priorities driving this RFP.
- Ensure access to textbooks and course materials in multiple formats (print, digital, rental).

- Implement fair and competitive pricing strategies—including exploring inclusive and equitable access models—while providing a robust mix of in-store and online services that ensure all students, including distance and hybrid learners, receive the required materials by the first day of class.
- Provide strong support for athletic merchandising across all venues—including football, basketball, baseball, soccer, and softball—by aligning bookstore and spirit store operations with Marshall Athletics branding, fan engagement strategies, and event-driven retail opportunities.

Q22. What specific pain points or goals have led to exploring a change in the bookstore provider? Is there anything specific to course materials?

A22. The current 10-year agreement with vendor expires end of June 2026 per the contract. State guidelines require that this contract must be awarded through the public competitive solicitation process.

No.

Q23. How does the institution currently measure the success of its bookstore/vendor relationship?

A23. Financial Performance: Assessment of effective financial management and integration of bookstore operations within university systems.

Customer Service Excellence: Evaluation of customer experience, accessibility, and responsiveness to campus community needs.

Continuous Improvement: Ongoing review of services to ensure alignment with evolving student needs and best practices.

Communication & Accountability: Regular review rhythms, transparent reporting, and timely communication between the institution and vendor.

Athletics Partnership: Measurement of collaboration with Athletics, including support for campus events, relevant product offerings, and enhancing the fan experience.

Q24. Has the institution conducted any surveys or internal reviews to understand student preferences around course material delivery formats? What student support issues or challenges have been most common?

A24. Marshall University has not conducted a formal, institution-wide survey. However, feedback has been gathered through informal channels and student engagement initiatives. For example, the Student Government Association launched a campaign centered on making educational materials more affordable, which highlighted student concerns about textbook costs and fees. Additionally, students responded positively to a recent pilot program that improved access to course materials, indicating a preference for convenient and timely delivery.

The most common student support issues have included challenges with affordability, timely access to required materials, and navigating multiple formats or platforms to obtain textbooks.

Q25. What specific customer service or operational challenges have you experienced with your current provider?

A25. In the past, we experienced challenges with insufficient staffing, which led to negative customer experiences. Additionally, there were issues with onsite leadership.

Q26. Has an Inclusive Access program been presented to campus leadership? Why hasn't it been implemented?

A26. Yes, Inclusive Access has been presented to campus leadership. Marshall University has not implemented Inclusive or Equitable Access models due to operational challenges, including integration with financial aid and billing systems. Rising tuition and fees have increased student price sensitivity, so the University is proceeding cautiously to avoid extra costs.

Q27. Has an Equitable Access program been presented to campus leadership? Why hasn't it been implemented?

A27. Yes, an Equitable Access program has been presented to campus leadership. Marshall University has not implemented Inclusive or Equitable Access models due to operational challenges, including integration with financial aid and billing systems. Rising tuition and fees have increased student price sensitivity, so the University is proceeding cautiously to avoid extra costs.

Q28. Is there a goal or strategy to adopt and utilize OER materials?

A28. The University currently does utilize Open Educational Resources (OER) materials. At this time, the university does not have a formal, institution-wide strategy dedicated specifically to the adoption or utilization of (OER). However, the principles behind OER strongly align with the university's broader affordability and access commitments outlined in the Marshall for All, Marshall Forever strategic plan.

This plan emphasizes minimizing tuition, and fee increases and expanding affordability for students—priorities that naturally connect to reducing textbook and course-material costs. Within this context, some courses already incorporate free or low-cost textbooks, which is consistent with OER principles. While this demonstrates movement toward more accessible course materials, there is not yet a comprehensive or formalized initiative targeting widespread OER adoption.

Q29. What is the projected enrollment growth rate over the next five years?

A29. The University anticipates a 1% annual increase from Fall 2025 through 2031.

Q30. Who is on the RFP Committee, and what are their roles?

A30. At this stage of the solicitation process, we are unable to disclose the names of the individuals service on the solicitation team. This ensures the integrity and fairness of the process by preventing any real or perceived undue influence. All communication related to this solicitation should continue to be directed through the Marshall's Procurement Services at bidquestions@marshall.edu.

- Q31. When did the bookstore renovation occur?
- A31. 1998 – Construction of a 7,000 sq. ft. addition to the bookstore that included renovation of the existing first floor bookstore, installation of freight elevator, etc.
- 2019 – “Refresh” that including new carpet, furnishings, wall graphics, etc.
- Q32. Please provide a list of FF&E that will remain if a new provider is selected.
- A32. All capital equipment purchased by the current vendor will remain the property of that vendor. This includes all furniture, trade fixtures, and equipment, such as point-of-sale systems. The University will work collaboratively with the current vendor to ensure an orderly transition and confirm that all items are accounted for and in acceptable condition.
- Q33. Will there be any outstanding amortized payments to the current vendor at contract end (renovations, fixtures, assets)?
- A33. No.
- Q34. Please provide bookstore floor plans and CAD drawings.
- A34. See Attachment E - Floor Plans.
- Q35. What store expenses are vendor-responsible (utilities, internet, trash, etc.)?
- A35. Trash removal, IT needs (internet, phone, etc.). See also Sections 4.3.15.3.4 and 4.6 of the RFP.
- Q36. Please provide brand guidelines and licensing details. Do you work with a third-party agency?
- A36. All University brand guidelines can be found at:
<https://www.marshall.edu/brandservices/brand-resources/>
- In addition, the vendor must work with both the Marketing and Communications Department and Office of Digital Strategy and Brand Management (Athletics) for any branding approvals.
- Q37. What merchandise brands are currently offered?
- A37. A wide variety of merchandise brands such as Nike, Champion, Columbia, Campus United, Pressbox, Gameday Couture, Logo, etc. are currently offered.
- Q38. What is the bookstore’s role in graduation regalia, diploma covers, and class rings?
- A38. The current vendor orders graduation regalia through Jostens. Diploma frames are sold both in-store and online, and class rings are available through Listen Directly.
- Q39. What is the on-field brand for athletics?
- A39. Nike

Q40. Regarding a technology offering, does the University have a designated device brand? (i.e., Apple, Dell, Chrome Tablet, etc.)

A40. Dell, Apple, and Lenovo products.

Q41. Are students allowed to use financial aid at the bookstore? Can students purchase general merchandise, emblematic clothing, spirit gear, with Financial Aid? Are there any financial aid restrictions?

A41. While federal financial aid is intended to support educationally related expenses, such as housing, transportation, books, supplies and personal education expenses, Marshall University does not monitor how students utilize federal financial aid refunds. Students may use financial aid refund funds to purchase any items they choose. This includes general merchandise, emblematic clothing, and spirit gear.

Once the refund is issued directly to the student, the University cannot control, restrict, or monitor how those funds are ultimately spent. There is no mechanism to determine whether refund dollars are used exclusively for school-related items.

Q42. Do you use a Campus Card for bookstore purchases? If so, what vendor manages the Campus Card?

A42. Yes there is a Campus Card for bookstore purchases. Transact System Enterprise (formerly Blackboard) manages the Campus Card.

Q43. Please confirm if the intent is to implement a digital-first program where all available digital materials are provided digitally?

A43. The University has not yet formally implemented a digital-first program for all available digital materials. However, the University has shown strong interest in expanding digital access, as evidenced by pilot programs conducted during various academic terms and openness to considering both Inclusive Access and Equitable Access models.

Q44. Has the institution implemented an inclusive access program?

If so, what percentage of courses utilize Inclusive Access and how much revenue is generated from Inclusive Access?

A44. The University conducted a pilot program during academic terms, Spring 2023, Summer 2023, Fall 2023 and Spring 2024. The program averaged three to 11 sections per term. Total amount University invested was $66,752 in pilot.

Q45. Would you consider implementing an Equitable Access program as a means to provide digital course materials?

A45. Yes.

Q46. If you don't currently have a digital access program, is there interest in implementing a program as part of this transition?

A46. Yes.

Q47. Are books currently included in tuition or a separate billed fee?

A47. Books are not included in tuition. Books are separate.

Q48. Does the Institution require the ability for students to “Opt Out” of an institutional access program.

A48. Yes.

Q49. Is the institution open to an initial contract term of 3 or 5 years if there is a financial benefit to the institution?

A49. Yes. While the RFP currently specifies a one-year initial term, the University may be open to considering an initial term of three or five years if it provides a financial benefit to the University. Any multi-year term would still be subject to the renewal structure outlined in the contract, requiring mutual written consent.

Q50. What are the current auxiliary revenues and/or commissions generated by the bookstore?

A50. Please see Addendum No 01.

Q51. What are the primary financial objectives of potentially partnering with a new/different course materials provider?

A51. Objectives are listed below:

- Partner with providers whose financial strategies align with our academic priorities, ensuring affordability, access, student success, and long-term institutional value.
- Deliver transparent financial reporting on sales, margins, pricing compliance, and program effectiveness.
- Increase bookstore or course materials revenue by pursuing improved commission structures, revenue-sharing opportunities, and diversified auxiliary income streams.

Q52. Is student cost savings a priority (e.g., no mark-up by the university with all savings passed to students)?

A52. The University is committed to minimizing costs for students, guided by its primary financial principle: “Grow Students, Not Fees.” Historically, any commissions generated by the main bookstore have been redirected to fund University scholarships.

Q53. Are you open to closing underperforming/low gross sales stores and, instead, replacing them with Vending, Lockers, Pop Ups during Rush?

A53. No – both the main store and Spirit Store will remain open throughout the contract period.

Q54. What is the current enrollment for concurrent high school students (Dual Enrollment/Dual Credit)? Do these students use the same course materials as the other students at the institution?

A54. There are approximately 2,000 students enrolled in “dual enrollment/dual credit”.

Yes, the students use the same course materials as other students at the institution. However, it varies based on the course and department. For example, if a high school offers HS 200 on-site, those students may not use the same online text required for students taking HS 200 online.

Q55. Do these students receive their materials through the bookstore vendor?

A55. Yes, they may obtain their materials through the bookstore vendor, but it is not mandatory. The current RFP exempts these students; please refer to Section 4.3.17 of the RFP.

Q56. Do these students have access to your LMS?

A56. Yes, these students have access to the university’s learning management system. If students are taking the course online or on campus, they use Blackboard. However, for dual credit courses taught within the high school, Blackboard is not always used.

Q57. Are these students identified or flagged in any way in your SIS?

A57. Yes. These students apply through the University’s admissions process as undergraduate early-entry students. In the Student Information System (SIS), they are flagged with a student type 7, indicating a high school student.

Q58. What are the current auxiliary revenues and/or commissions generated by the bookstore?

A58. Please see Addendum No 01.

Q59. Is the institution able and interested in including Dual Credit students as a part of the scope of content coverage through a vendor?

A59. Yes. The University is both able and interested in including Dual Credit students within the scope of content coverage through the selected vendor. Dual Credit (Herd Academy) students—already access a mix of course materials, including Open Educational Resources (OER), institutionally provided materials, and vendor-supplied materials where applicable.

Q60. What is the enrollment growth rate projection for the next 5 years?

A60. The University anticipates a 1% annual increase from Fall 2025 through 2031.

Q61. Will you provide these most recent Text Adoptions booklist - preferably in Google Sheet or Excel format?

A61. See Attachment F - Book Lists

for Fall 2025 and Spring 2026.

Q62. What % of courses require a textbook?

A62. Approximately 31% of all sections use textbooks and no online content.
Approximately 9% of sections for Spring 2026 are still listed as missing.

Q63. What % of courses use courseware, i.e. content with codes (i.e., My Pearson Lab, Cengage Now, Wiley Plus, etc)?

A63. About 10% of all sections for Spring 2026 use courseware.

Q64. What % of courses use OER? What is the goal of OER% for the following 4 years of the contract.

A64. Marshall tracks OER usage through course codes such as FreeBK and NoBK, and in Fall there were 51 courses coded as using free textbooks and 239 using Affordable Education materials. Due to state reporting rules and coding limitations, these figures are conservative and likely underrepresent actual OER adoption—particularly in departments where OER use is known but not captured in BERT (Banner Extracting and Reporting Tool), or where courses with paid labs cannot be counted.

Over the next four years, the University aims to expand OER adoption through continued faculty engagement, state-supported grant programs, and increased participation in OER reviews and trainings, building on the current average of 12–15 new faculty participants per year.

Q65. What are the top three challenges that you face with your current course materials operations/vendor that the institution hopes to resolve with a new provider?

A65. The institution is satisfied with its current provider and has no challenges to report. This RFP is being issued to ensure ongoing competitiveness and to evaluate whether emerging course-material models, technologies, or cost-reduction strategies could further enhance pricing, access, and support for students and faculty. See A21 for additional information.

Q66. What Commission percentages are you currently being paid for Digital and Non Digital Sales?

A66. 7% Digital; 13.10% - 14.10% non-Digital.

Q65. What additional challenges (not mentioned in this RFP) with your existing bookstore operations would you like to see addressed with a potential transition?

A65. The institution is satisfied with its current provider and has no challenges to report. This RFP is being issued to ensure ongoing competitiveness and to evaluate whether emerging course-material models, technologies, or cost-reduction strategies could further enhance pricing, access, and support for students and faculty. See A21 for additional information.

Q66. What signing bonus, scholarships, sponsorships or other financial incentives have been offered and/or paid by the incumbent bookstore vendor? In what year was this paid?

A66. Main Bookstore Addition Project (1998) $1,672,331

Q67. You've listed sales data including category breakdowns. (new books, used books, digital, inclusive/equitable access, rental, clothing, gift, convenience, technology, etc.) but these numbers feel very low for an institution of your size. It says "Spirit Store". Can you account for course material sales?

A67. Please see Addendum No 01.
