

Psy.D. Program in Clinical Psychology
Marshall University

All materials must be received by the Graduate Admissions Office and Department by December 1. Please allow time for the transportation method you select to deliver them by this date.

Please keep this checklist for your records. Do not return it with your application.

___ Marshall University Application for Graduate Admission (program code for PsyD is GLFO)
Submit online or download a copy and mail: <http://www.marshall.edu/admissions/apply.asp>

___ One official copy of your undergraduate transcript. If you have graduated the transcript should show the degree earned and date conferred. The official transcript should be mailed directly from your degree granting undergraduate institution to the Graduate Admissions Office.

___ Official transcripts for all of your graduate coursework mailed directly from the institutions you attended to the Graduate Admissions Office.

___ GRE Scores (General Test) sent by the testing agency directly to the Graduate Admissions Office.

If not submitted online, all of the above items should be sent to:

Marshall University
Graduate Admissions Office
100 Angus E. Peyton Drive
South Charleston, WV 25303-1600

___ Departmental Supplemental Application

___ Personal statement

___ Three letters of recommendation AND rating forms (in envelopes sealed with evaluator signature across the seal)

All of the above items should be sent to:

Marshall University Department of Psychology
Psy.D. Admissions
One John Marshall Drive
Huntington, WV 25755

It is the applicant's responsibility to make sure that the application materials are complete, that all materials for the application have been sent, and all materials have been received at the appropriate address by the application due date