Collier's Corner

Dear UB Students,

Happy November! The school year is flying by quickly—something our seniors will soon realize!

First, our trip to the University of Cincinnati and the Newport Aquarium was a great learning experience! We enjoyed visiting the beautiful campus and later taking the “behind the scenes” tour at the aquarium! The tour guides were very good in detailing how many different work positions a place like the aquarium requires! Can you see yourself working there in your dream job?

By now everyone has received the grades from your first grading period. As a staff, we are very proud of the hard work you all have done! Many of you are taking challenging courses such as online, dual credit, and AP classes which will better prepare you for your college journey! As always, please let us know if you need help with any of your academics and remember to take advantage of the tutoring at your high school and the tutoring sessions scheduled through Upward Bound. The next tutoring/enrichment sessions are Saturday, November 9, and Sunday, December 8.

I am looking forward to the Christmas Party at the Strike Zone on Saturday, December 7. Be sure to bring your canned goods for a donation and pick up your stipend check!

Last of all, November is a time to reflect on thankfulness for all of the blessings in our lives. I am so thankful for my faith, family, co-workers, good health, and the students in Upward Bound, just to mention a few! Keep diligent in your school work over the next few weeks and enjoy your friends and family during the Thanksgiving Holiday! Send us some selfies and texts to keep us posted over your break!

Love ya, Darlene
