

Upward Bound Guidelines

The Upward Bound Program is preparing its students for a successful college career. In order to be successful, one must be motivated and willing to participate. Upward Bound students must participate in the activities and various components of the program in order to benefit from it. Students will receive a $120.00 stipend check per semester for program participation. Money will be deducted from monthly stipend checks for components of the program that are missed. The following table lists the various components, the guidelines required, and the consequences associated with them.
