UNITED WAY OF THE RIVER CITIES' WORK

United Way of the River Cities does not simply fund programs that provide Band-Aid fixes. Our work focuses on addressing the root causes of our community's most complex problems. Through partnerships with a diverse group of individuals, organizations, government, labor, civic groups, school systems and others, we work to create long-term solutions to these problems.

LIVE UNITED

FRANK'S STORY

Frank had always been successful, but there was one goal he wanted to achieve: to learn to read, especially to his grandson. He joined an adult-literacy program and has gained confidence to expand his reading skills.

"This program makes me feel proud of myself because I know sooner or later, I'm going to be able to read anything I want. And I can go fill out any kind of paper I want. And that makes me feel good, you know. If it wasn't for this program, I couldn't do this."

Frank, literacy program student

MARY'S STORY

Mary had reached a crossroads in her life and wanted to learn new skills to begin a new career. After attending life-skills courses, she is currently employed and has her own successful jewelry business.

"They just gave me the self-esteem I needed. They built me up. Every day was nothing but positive thoughts. I said, 'I can do this. I can really take off and be independent.' And I am today."

Mary, life skills course graduate
